Submittal requirements:

- ☒ A copy of the notice of decision for the case under appeal. Attached
- ☒ Forms with name, address, and signature for each owner asking to be included in the protest (included in this packet). Attached
- ☒ A copy of the zone atlas page for the area indicating the property under consideration for land use application and highlighting each of the properties included in the form submitted as part of this protest. The properties should be numbered to match the listings of property owners in the attached forms. Attached

Note: The 20% rule applies to appeals filed before the Board of County Commissioners only, not the County Planning Commission. Certification of protest under the 20% rule must be submitted to the Bernalillo County Planning and Development Services no later than one week prior to the scheduled BCC appeal hearing. The department will verify the information presented for the protest and make a determination prior to the hearing date as to whether the 20% rule applies to the appeal. If the 20% rule does apply to the case, the proposed land use application must be approved by an extraordinary vote of the Board of County Commissioners, as specified in the County Zoning Code.
